AACO 2004 TOUR RESERVATION FORM

TREASURES OF MADISON, Sunday, August 1, 2004, 1:00 p.m. - 4:15 p.m.

Narrated drive-by tour of Madison's Isthmus. Learn the low-down about Capital Square, Mansion Hill, Governor's Mansion, University of Wisconsin, Vilas Park Zoo and much more. You'll have time at Olbrich Gardens to wander in the beautiful outdoor gardens as well as visit the indoor tropical forest featuring the "Blooming Butterflies" exhibit of live, free-flying butterflies. $30.00 per person includes transportation, admission, treat, and tour guide.

CHEESE, BEER, AND ALL THINGS SWISS, Tuesday, August 3, 9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Travel to Monroe, the unofficial "Cheese Capital" of Wisconsin. See how the cheese is made on the guided tour of a real cheese plant. Free samples abound and there's time for shopping in their store. Drive the short distance to "Little Switzerland," better known as New Glarus, WI for a lunch you'll never forget! Your plated meal includes a cheese fondue demonstration, Swiss entertainment, and homemade pastry for dessert. Top off the day with a self-tour of the New Glarus Brewery. Sample the local brews and take home a souvenir glass. $51.00 per person includes transportation, tour director, admissions, lunch, entertainment, and souvenir glass.

A TASTE OF WISCONSIN'S WINE AND CHEESE, Thursday, August 5, 12:30 p.m. - 4:15 p.m.

Enjoy a day away in scenic rural Wisconsin. Visit a real family-run Wisconsin cheese plant and see first hand how its done. Then sample the cheese. Hmmm. Tour a picturesque, historic winery and taste their award winning wines. Please note: There are steps and hills on the winery tour. $30.00 per person includes transportation, admissions, and tour director.
